Chemicals and Electronic Products

Nexeo Solutions received the award for exceptional technical service and supply chain excellence. The award was presented to Nexeo Solutions' Matt Mannette, Senior Manager of Product Marketing, and Jason Sanchez, Director of Co-Packaging, by Tia Jiles, Wesco Aircraft's Executive Director of Strategic Supply Chain – Chemicals and Electronic Products, during its Annual Partner Appreciation event held at the JW Marriott Desert Springs Resort & Spa in Palm Desert, California.

This was the second year in a row that Nexeo Solutions has been invited by Wesco Aircraft to participate in the annual, two-day event, which recognizes and promotes exemplary partnership with its top suppliers. Nexeo Solutions received one of only two awards distributed to suppliers in the chemicals category at the 2018 event.

"After attending the event last year, we were determined to win the award in 2018," said Mr. Mannette. "Our teams worked together with Wesco Aircraft each quarter, listening to the customer's unique needs and building our relationship. As a result, Nexeo Solutions has helped Wesco drive supply chain efficiencies and streamline buying activities that leverage cost reductions through a single-source supplier."

"We have been supplying military-specified products to Wesco Aircraft for more than a decade. Last year, we expanded our relationship to include commercial lines as well," said Mr. Sanchez. "Wesco recognized the technical expertise and resources we deliver, and we are excited to continue our focus on helping Wesco drive the right product solutions in the future."
