Nexeo Solutions Enhances the Company Website with Robust Product Search, Multi-language, and Live Chat

THE WOODLANDS, Texas, Aug. 30, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Nexeo Solutions, Inc. (NASDAQ:NXEO), a leader in chemicals and plastics distribution, announced the launch of its newly enhanced website at its current www.NexeoSolutions.com address. The new website puts the customer experience at the forefront, providing visitors a comprehensive understanding of the Company's value proposition, overall service offerings, and easy access to product information.

"We are continually thinking about our customers and how to make sure they are able to get what they need, when they need it. Our updated website is just one way that we are exemplifying this commitment to our customers and suppliers," said Shawn Williams, Executive Vice President of Plastics at Nexeo Solutions. "We want to ensure our customers have the best experience at every interaction – whether using web chat with our team, submitting a product or price request digitally, or working on-site with one of our professionals."

"Today, online users expect fast and efficient access to a wealth of information twenty-four hours a day. Providing open access to product and supplier information and rapid response to online requests is all at the heart of our service commitment," said Brian Herington, Executive Vice President of Chemicals at Nexeo Solutions. "We believe that this new site will allow our visitors to have a very informative experience that fully complements our ongoing commitment to provide best-in-class digital capability in our industry."

Notable enhancements to include:

- NEW robust search capability for over 24,000 products
- NEW multi-language capability supporting English, Spanish, French, and German
- Live chat functionality with customer service representatives and technical experts
- Streamlined navigation with responsive design for tablet and mobile devices
- Comprehensive supplier profiles
- Improved customer experience through enriched content, navigation, and form fills
- Technical data and pricing information are available on request
- Access to customer registration and credit applications
